

SAINTS IN THE FIRST MILLENNIUM

JUNE 25, 2011

⊕ZARK'S THEOLOGY CONFERENCE

Sponsored by Christ the King Church of Springfield, Missouri

Guest speaker: Christopher Schlect

Who were the early Christians? How did the church grow from a tiny number to spread across the known world, against impossible obstacles and challenges? These early believers trusted Christ as they faced the fire and sword of the persecutors, they defended the Gospel as they opposed heresies and unbelief, they labored as missionaries as they fearlessly spread the Christian faith to the fiercest of the barbarian tribes.

What can the saints of today learn from these fathers and mothers in the faith? How can they inspire and guide us as we face the challenges of our own day? Join us as we study the past with an eye to the present and the future, as historian, Chris Schlect, teaches us their story.

CONFERENCE SCHEDULE

9:00.....Conference Begins

- I. Sainthood
- II. The Saint as Martyr
- III. The Saint as Apologist

12:30.....Lunch on your own

1:45.....Conference Resumes

- IV. The Saint as Confessor I
- V. The Saint as Confessor II

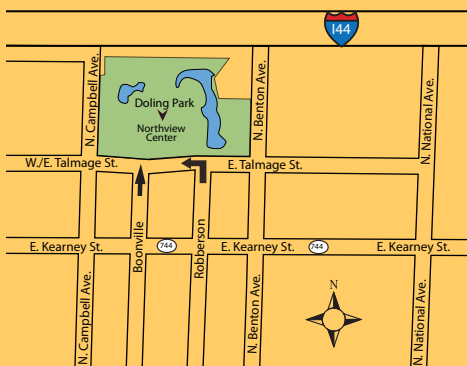

4:00.....Conference Ends

Christopher Schlect is a Fellow of History at New Saint Andrews College and a teaching elder at Trinity Reformed Church in Moscow, Idaho. While teaching at NSA, Chris is pursuing his doctoral degree in history at Washington State University.

He has written the Critique of Modern Youth Ministry and The Christian Worldview and Apologetics and is a contributing editor of Credenda/Agenda. He has also written for Table Talk and Classis and has contributed to Repairing the Ruins: The Classical and Christian Challenge to Modern Education. Mr. Schlect and his wife, Brenda, have five children.

This Conference will be held at the Northview Center at Doling Park in Springfield.

This Conference is open to the public and there is no charge to attend. If you have any questions, please call Pastor Eric Sauder at Christ the King Church: 417-833-9546